

The HTTP Gamespy

These are the goals you have to accomplish to finish the mod:

WorldCorp

- Hack the space station's intranet and upload its schematics to WC.
  - The intranet can be accessed from the computers in the admin module.
- Find Deus Diablo.
  - When you find his apartment, you'll discover he isn't there – he will send you a PM to tell you he knows what you're doing, and he will do what he can to stop you.
- Access the Master Control Mainframe and redirect power through the Artillery Power Generators so you can turn them on.
  - The MCM is in the command module.
- Power up the ROFL by finding the Artillery Power Generators and turning them on.
  - The generators can be found in the engineering module.
  - There will be a small puzzle that you need to solve to turn the APG's on.
- Go back to the Master Control Mainframe and use the ROFL (Remote Orbital Frequency Laser) cannon to destroy PDX.
  - When you come back to the command module, DD will be there waiting for you; a boss fight will ensue.

PlanetDeusEx

- Hack the space station's intranet system and upload the station schematics to PDX.
  - The intranet can be accessed from the computers in the admin module.
- Find Deus Diablo and escort him to the docking bay.
  - This time, he'll be found in his own apartment.
- Find the Master Control Mainframe and disable the security locks on the AI.
  - The MCM is in the command module.
- Find the control terminal for the AI of the station, Narcissus, and upload it to your brain
  - Kylie will be waiting for you in front of the Narcissus terminal; a boss fight ensues.
- Ban Scara and Aunt Betty - unless Betty is already dead, of course.
  - When you merge with Narcissus, you are teleported into a seemingly infinite cyberspacish area where Narcissus' logo hovers in mid-air.
  - By frobbing the logo, you can bring up a prompt that lets you access the accounts of Ryan or Scara.
  - When you access one of their accounts, you appear in their office and can talk to them before banning them by firing a special weapon at them.
  - When both are banned, the end-game cinematic will begin.

Ryan

- Find the Master Control Mainframe and redirect all power through the LEETs (Large Emergency Energy Turbine) of the station.
  - The MCM is in the command module.
- Find the LEETs and overheat them.
  - The LEETs are located in the engineering module.
  - When you overheat the LEETs, the station will begin to break down.
  - You have a certain amount of time to leave before it blows up.
- Find the Docking Control Terminal and open the docking bay blast doors.

- The dock control room is overlooking the docking bay.
- Get back to your shuttle.
  - Kylie will be waiting for you in the docking bay; a boss fight ensues.
- Escape the station before it blows up.
  - When you frob your shuttle after Kylie is dead, the end-game cinematic begins.

Cinematics:

WorldCorp:

[Camera shows ROFL hanging in space, turning slowly to target a specific location on the vast surface of ForumPlanet. A powering up sound is heard, a small ball of fire forms at the muzzle of the laser, the screen fades to white.]

[Instant cut: Camera shows the courtyard at PDX HQ, Kashue, Phas, Evil, and Slicer (the game will remove any of them who were killed) are running out of the door towards the elevator, Winquman and Jonas are running out of the other door. They all meet at the center and face each other.]

Phasmatis: Do you think he'll really do it?

Kashue: Don't kid yourself, I'm sure he already has... it's just a matter of time now, before...

[Kashue looks towards the sky.]

Kashue: Bugger...

[Fade to white as a deafening explosion is heard.]

[Fade from white: Camera shows interior of Scara B. King's office, on the other side of the table, That Guy sits in a chair.]

[Note: Ricemanu is standing at attention behind Scara; the game will remove him if he's dead.]

Scara: ...of course there's a promotion in it for you too, you've been invaluable to this whole affair, and now that I run Forumplanet, I'm planning to put you in charge of the server complex.

That Guy: Yeah uh, thanks... sir... that's very generous of you, but all I want to know is: Do I also get a faster net connection?

Security guard: He's back, sir.

[Trestkon walks in and stands next to That Guy, facing Scara.]

Scara: Trestkon! I'm speechless! That was the best work I've ever seen! You're a hero Trestkon, my most valued operative! I want to put you in charge of running PDX Forum City, what do you say?

Trestkon: That sounds good, sir. But right now I really just want to take a few weeks' vacation.

Scara: Of course, you got it! Take three weeks off on me, then we'll get back to business! This world is heading for a glorious future! It's time to tidy up the place, streamline the bureaucratic machinery... we have plenty of work to do!

Trestkon: Sounds good.

[If Kylie is alive]

Scara: In fact, why don't you spend your vacation with Ms. Griffin? She seemed very impressed with your work on the space station.

PlanetDeusEx:

[Camera shows Scara standing in a white void.]

[If Ryan was left alive, he's there too:]

Scara: Great... great work, fucker. Look what you've done!

Ryan: Say what!? I fail to see how this is MY fault!

Scara: If you had just cooperated and let my operatives use those space shuttles, it would've been ME at the controls of that space station and that bastard Threston standing in this wasteland. Instead, your completely unmotivated attack on my security force made it a cakewalk for him to steal my shuttle and reach the station!

Ryan: UNMOTIVATED MY ASS! You coulda just kept your filthy yellow grabbers off of MY company in the first place, you compulsively hoarding megalomaniac!

Scara: Oh! You! I--! I'M RICHER THAN YOU, YOU HAVE TO DO WHAT I TELL YOU!

Ryan: That's just sad.

Scara: Hmph. Look... help me figure out a way to escape this place, and I'll let you have your factory back once world domination is mine...

Ryan: You wish; like I'd trust you, you sick old man.

Scara: Hnnngh! Alright... I'll give you 5% of WorldCorp's stocks...

Ryan: I'm not cooperating with you! You're mad!

Scara: 10%!!

Ryan: Argh, I can't believe I'm gonna have to spend eternity locked in a nondescript white landscape with you!

Scara: Okay, okay... 20%!!!

Ryan: ...deal.

Scara: BWAHAHAHAHAH! I WILL RETURN! DO YOU HEAR ME, TROSTKEN!? DO YOU HEAR ME KASHUE!? I WILL RETUUUURN!!!

[Fade to black]

[If Ryan was killed:]

Scara: No! YOU CAN'T DO THIS TO ME! Are you listening Threston!? ARE YOU LISTENING!? YOU CAN'T DO THIS TO ME! I'M RICH! RICHER THAN YOU'LL EVER BE!!! I'LL KILL YOU! No, I'll... I'll HIRE somebody to kill you! I'm going to find a way out of here, and I will MAKE YOU PAY FOR YOUR INSOLENCENCE!

[Fade to black]

Ryan:

[The shuttle is seen leaving the space station, which then explodes magnificently. Fade to black.]

[Fade in. The camera soars through the dark and powerless streets of the Corporate Sector. The camera stops outside of PDX HQ, where Kashue, Phas, Evil, Slicer, Jonas, Winquman, and Krissy are leaving the building. Phas stops for a moment and looks at the empty building, and then he follows the others out of the picture. Fade to black.]
